

SUBMISSIONS TO THE IRISH GENEALOGIST STYLE RULES

The Editorial Committee is interested to receive suitably academic submissions to The Irish Genealogist and will give them every consideration.

Please provide copy by e-mail or on CD. The preferred file format is Microsoft Word, font Times New Roman 9 pt. No double spaces between sentences. Do not worry about page widths, margins etc.

Dates should be in standard genealogical format without commas (e.g., 6 July 1906) and may use standard abbreviations without full stops (Jan, Feb, Sept etc.). Ordinals are superscript e.g., 1st and 2nd.

Images

It is a great help if you can provide public domain, out-of-copyright or your own images. These should be supplied as JPEG or TIFF files, at 600 dpi. Alternatively, please send originals for scanning.

References

References should be as footnotes per page. This journal follows a version of the Harvard style.
